

Hether Clash Macfarlane

3200 Fifth Ave.

Sacramento, CA 95817

hmacfarlane@pacific.edu / (916) 739-7215

LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Professor of Lawyering Skills, McGeorge School of Law, Sacramento, CA, 2009 - present
Teach in two-year Global Lawyering Skills program for first- and second-year students.
Teach one section of GLS I and one section of GLS II. Teach the LL.M. Legal Process covering the U.S. legal system, common law reasoning, U.S. legal writing, and U.S. legal research to International LL.M. students each year. Serve on faculty committees.

Director of Legal Process, McGeorge School of Law, Sacramento, CA, 2000 - 2009
Directed first year Legal Process course. Responsible for creating syllabus for entire course. Responsible for training and supervising six full-time and five part-time instructors. Taught Legal Process for International LL.M. students. Served on faculty committees.

Instructor, McGeorge School of Law, Sacramento, CA, 1995 - 2000
Taught and created materials for required first year Legal Process course. Course involved basic instruction in structures of the American legal system, concepts of precedent and stare decisis, principles of written legal analysis in both objective and persuasive formats, and research sources and skills.

Associate, Hunton & Williams, Washington, DC, 1991-1994
Researched and drafted briefs and memoranda for cases in federal courts; drafted comments for Clean Air Act rulemakings by the Environmental Protection Agency; supervised technical consultants.

Director, Legal Research and Writing, Albany Law School, Albany, NY 1988-1991
Devised and taught required first year Legal Research and Writing course and supervised five Instructors. Course covered research sources and skills, principles of objective and persuasive writing, appellate writing, and oral argument. Taught Labor Law in the Public Sector, Fall, 1990. Co-created and taught in the academic support program.

Instructor, Legal Research and Writing, Albany Law School, Albany, NY, 1986-1988
Taught three sections of Legal Research and Writing course. Created writing problems for 86 students.

EDUCATION

Albany Law School of Union University, Albany, NY

Juris Doctor, 1986

Bar Admissions: California, 1997; District of Columbia, 1993; New York, 1987.

Class Rank: 9/195. Honors: J.D. awarded Cum Laude; Justinian Society

Law Review: Note and Comment Editor, 1985-1986; Member 1984-1985

Publication: Dropped Stitches: Federal Regulation of Industrial Homework, 50 ALB. L. REV. 107 (1985).

University of California, Berkeley, CA
Candidate for the Ph.D., 1973
M.A. 1971
Field: Modern European Diplomatic History

Connecticut College, New London, CT
A.B. in History, 1970
Honors: Magna Cum Laude, Phi Beta Kappa, Distinction in the Major Field

PUBLICATIONS

Hether C. Macfarlane & Suzanne E. Rowe, California Legal Research (Carolina Academic Press 2008).

Hether C. Macfarlane & Maureen Moran, Global Issues in Legal Research and Legal Writing (Thomson West forthcoming 2013).

MEMBERSHIPS

Legal Writing Institute, 1987-1991, 1995-present, New Members Committee, 2006-2008, Awards Committee, 2009 to present, Plagiarism Committee, 2010 to present; Association of Legal Writing Directors, member 2000-2010, Secretary, 2005-2008; AALS Section on Legal Research, Writing, and Reasoning.