

SOUTHWEST HALL

NAMING OPPORTUNITIES

Historic Southwest Hall, one of the original ten buildings on University of the Pacific’s Stockton Campus, will soon become a world-class, state-of-the-art living and learning community. Primarily for second-year students, the three-story building will house nearly 400 students, and will feature lounge and study spaces and an interior courtyard. The façade will closely replicate the original building, intentionally retaining the historic feel of campus.

Below are opportunities to help Southwest Hall become a home, giving students a sense of community and better access to resources in an environment designed to help them thrive.

Naming Opportunity	Gift Amount
Building Naming	$10,000,000
Outdoor Courtyard	$1,000,000
South Lobby	$750,000
Multipurpose Room	$750,000
North Lobby	$500,000
Lounges	$250,000
Study Lounge	$100,000
Student Rooms	$25,000

For more information on how you can support Southwest Hall, please contact Molly Byrne, Senior Associate Vice President for Development at 209.946.2780 | mbyrne1@pacific.edu